1. Intensive Japanese Course & Classes

(1) Intensive Japanese Course

The course, which was established in 1954, is a pioneer of international education programs among Japanese universities. Over the 60 years since its establishment, the Intensive Japanese Course (IJC) has developed unique Japanese teaching methods and the number of students has grown annually. The one-year IJC at Asia University is intended to prepare students to enter regular Japanese university courses by developing overall Japanese and English competencies.

(2) Classes

Class A	A is for students who graduated from university or junior college whose Japanese proficiency is higher than Level N2 of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test. The goal is to enable students to enter graduate school or to transfer to the 3rd year student in the undergraduate program.
Class B	B is for students whose Japanese proficiency is equivalent to Level N3 of Japanese Language Proficiency Test. The goal is to enable students to study in a regular course at a Japanese university.
Class C	C is for students whose Japanese proficiency is equivalent to Level N4 of Japanese Language Proficiency Test. The goal is to enable students to study in a regular course at a Japanese university.

2. Capacity & Eligibility

(1) Capacity

70 Students

(2) Eligibility

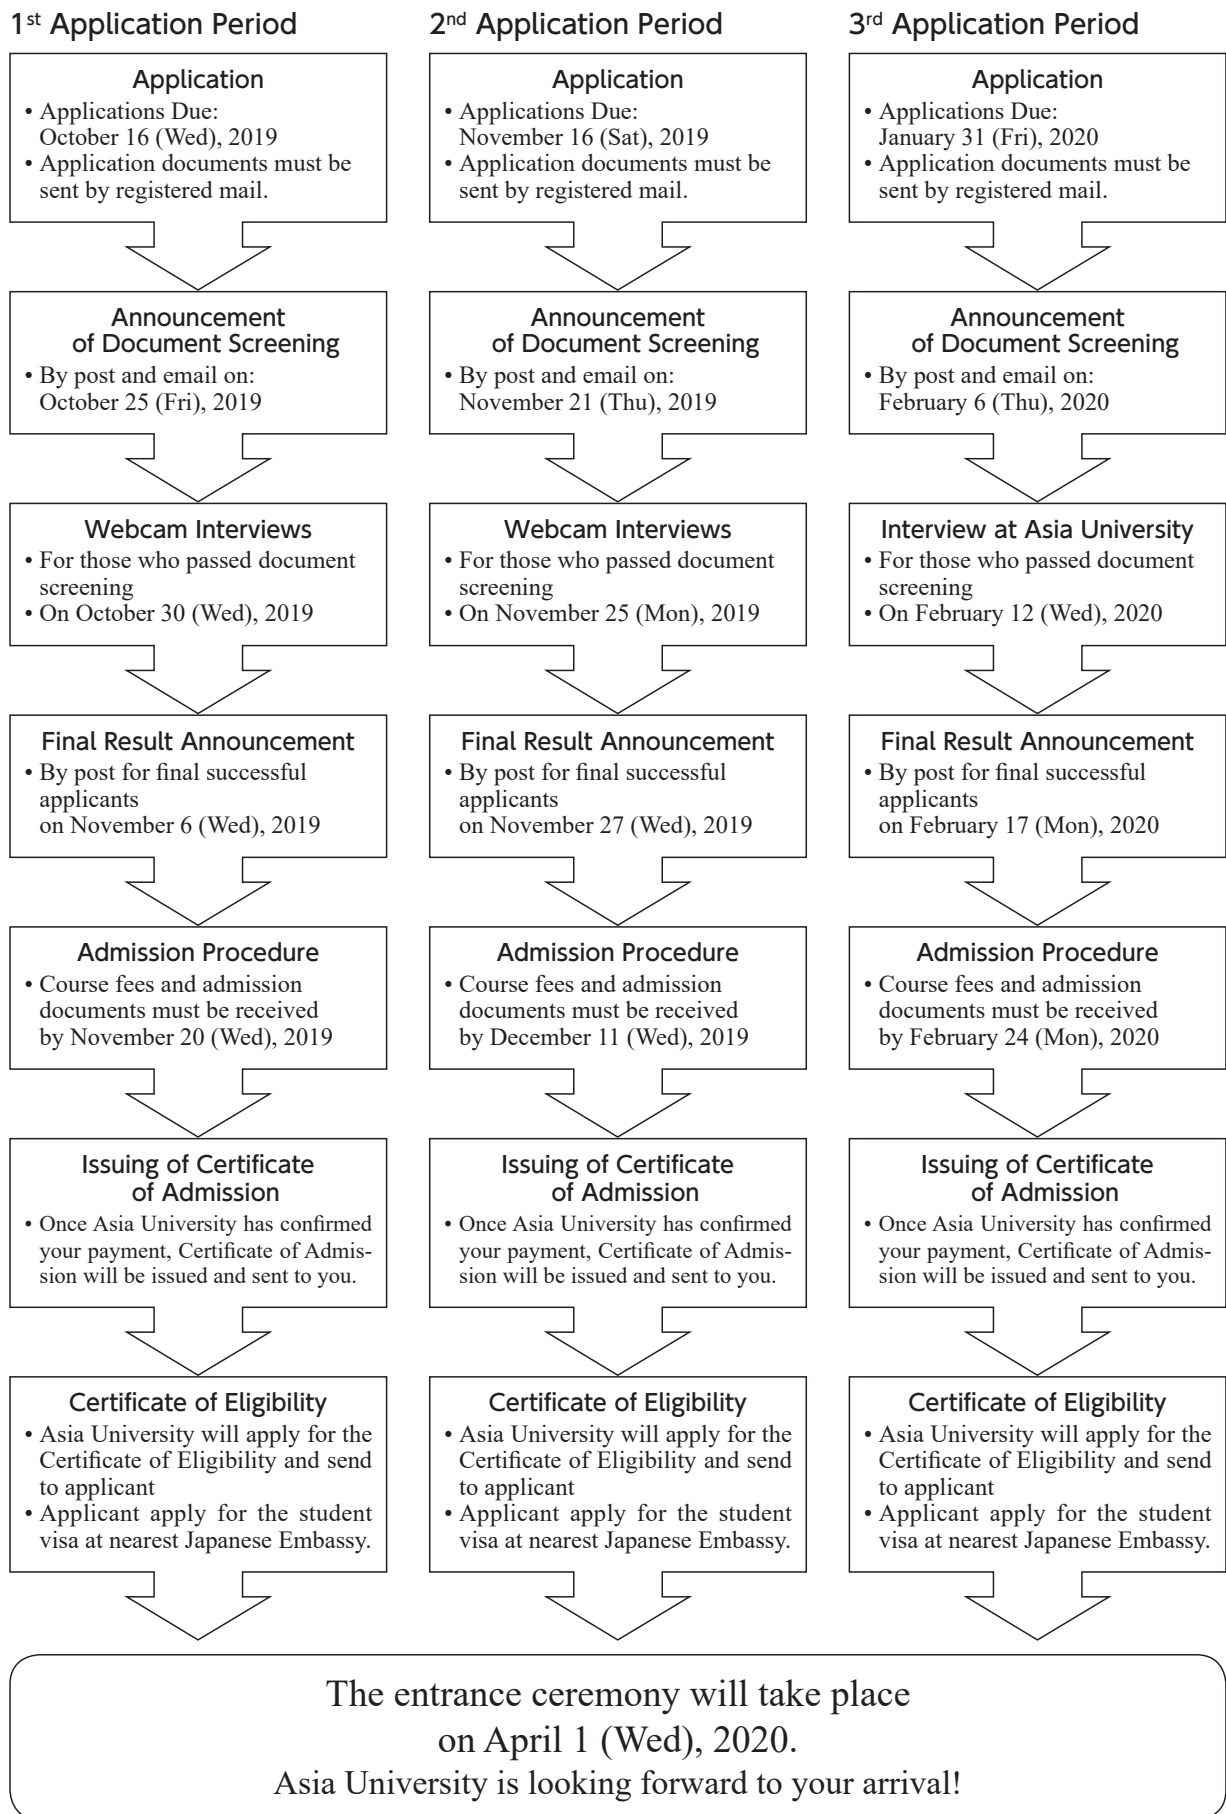

Any individual that meets any one of the conditions labeled a-c, meets condition d, and either or both condition e or f is eligible to apply to Asia University's Intensive Japanese Course.

- a) Holds citizenship other than Japanese; has completed no less than 12 years of regular schooling; and is eligible to enter a university within their home country. Alternatively, has completed (or is scheduled to complete) such schooling by March 31, 2020.
- b) A person who meets the criteria for a) and has completed a preparatory course at an education facility designated by the minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology for the purpose of entering a Japanese university. Alternatively, will complete such schooling by March 31, 2020.
- c) A person who meets the criteria for a) and holds an International Baccalaureate (IB), granted by the International Baccalaureate Office based on the Swiss civil code, or plans to attain it by March 31, 2020.
- d) Has not studied for a total of two or more years at Japanese primary and/or secondary school; and/or has never been enrolled in a Japanese university, junior college, or professional trade school.
